Foundation - Data Integration Services

Description

Service to establish ongoing integrations from the firm's Finance, NBI, HR, CRM, website, and data warehouse systems into Foundation.

Pain Points

- Integration Hurdles – The challenge of integrating a fragmented landscape of data silos into a unified view can impede comprehensive data analysis and decision-making.
- Resource Constraints – Limited availability of resources and necessary skill sets can hinder efficient data management and system optimization.
- Learning Curve – Process of learning & mastering a new import database can be time-consuming & complex, potentially slowing productivity.
- Mapping Complexities – The intricacies involved in mapping existing data structures to new ones and documenting every decision can be overwhelming and prone to errors.
- Process Delays – The lengthy process of managing large data volumes can stall other critical business operations, affecting overall productivity.
- Coordination Complications – The need for concurrent coordination of different teams, handling PTI questions, and managing different systems can lead to communication gaps and operational inefficiencies.

Firm Resources Required

- Lead time for SOW signing, resource allocation, and execution.
- Firm IT Lead.
- Firm BD/system owners' participation for requirements & business decisions.
- Access and permissions to firm's source systems and software.

Outcomes/Benefits

- Unified System – Efficient and cohesive management of firm intelligence.
- Optimized Performance – auditing and rewriting of existing integrations to align with industry best practices.
- Best Practice Integration – Application of best practice integration methodology in both Staging and Production environments.
- Holistic Matter Profiles – Comprehensive matter profiles with holistic views of the firm's work.
- Expert Lawyer Profiles – Robust lawyer profiles for expertise searches. across the firm with near real-time syncs to the firm's website.
- Enhanced Client Profiles – Enhanced client profiles including industry details and lawyer roles.
- Detailed Tracking – facilitating strategic relationship management and business development through tracking of contacts, companies, their relationships, and activities.
- Time Entry View – Universal view of time entries for enhanced reporting and charting, including time frames, computed fields, and practice rollups.
- Work Hour Insights – Insights into work hour distributions by personnel attributes, including Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) metrics.
- Information Access Management – Managing access to information with ethical walls, ensuring confidentiality and compliance with legal and professional standards.
- Transparency and Reference – Detailed documentation for reference and transparency.

LITERA

© 2024 Litera Corp. I All Rights Reserved I Confidential